Col. John Fleming, Democrat and present incumbent, disputes Noble's election, and claims that many illegal ballots were cast for Noble in Long isiand City. Should the canvassers throw out these ballots, the vote will be very close, and Fleming may be counted in. The contest for Superintendent of the Poor is between Piersall, Democrat, and Firth, Republican. The returns filed with the County Clerk, show a majority for Firth, but Piersall claims that the to succeed Internal Revenue Collector Nathan and J. J. Kiernan to succeed Navai Officer Willis. The machine was refused both of these appointments.

Mr. Kiernan and Mr. McKinney are Anti-Snappers and lately have assisted in arranging plans to reorganize the Democratic party in Kings County.

Of course if the party is reorganized, as the Republican party was, Mr. McLaughlin will be dropped into oblivion just as Jacob Worth and Ernst Nathan were.

The squawking of the frightened fowl a aroused the owner of the chickens. It also aroused frederick Lant, the Republican contable, who lives next door. Constable Lant seized his shot gun and rushed over to his neighbor's house. The two got to the coop in time to see the thleves running away in the darkness.

"Hait!" cried Constable Lant, but the thieves only ran the harder.

Lant raised his gun to his shoulder, took aim at one of the fleeting, shadowy figures, and fired.

The shot apparently had no effect, as the men kept running. Shearman and Lant continued the pursuit, and after a hard chase, overhauled one of the trio, who proved to be McEllicott. He was locked up.

McDonald was found hiding in an alley off Butler street early this morning. He was in great pain, his legs being riddled with shot.

At one time the bears put Burlington & Quincy down to 80 1-2, but the effort to depress other shares was a failure.

The traders have a vague notion that the Vanderbilts and other leading capitalists have certain "deals" on foot in connection with the anthracite coal trade and Eastern trunk line matters which will give the market a litt, despite the unfavorable conditions prevailing west of the Mississippi.

The story that the Vanderbilts have secured control of the Reading is denied by Cornellus Vanderbilt, but neverstateless finds bellevers. Their interests in Lackawanna, Delaware & Hudson and other properties make it desirable for them to secure a voice in the Iteading management, and on this ground alone the street gives credence to the story referred to.

The most important advances were 2 in Sugar to 961-2, 11-2 in Chicago Gas to 613-4, 13-8 in Burlington & Quincy to 817-8, 11-8 in Rock Island to 671-2, 13-4 in General Electric to 431-4, 1 in Distillers to 297-8, 1 in Manhattan to 130, and 1 in Western Union to 831-4. The dealings were quite animated on the way up.
